

From: Eve Marschark [evemarschark@verizon.net]
Sent: Wednesday, July 28, 2010 4:27 PM
To: landjspiegel@aol.com; EP, RegComments; margueritequinn@pahousenews.com
Cc: dan@agafarms.com; dixie14@verizon.net; WBattist@its.jnj.com; left34@verizon.net; bdrewblc@comcast.net; abbrooms1@verizon.net; creisinger@cephalon.com
Subject: Re: Proposed Regulations on Marcellus Shale Drilling

Nicely done, John!
-Eve

Eve Marschark
President, Bedminster Regional Land Conservancy - Accredited evemarschark@verizon.net
215-795-2023
www.bedminsterlandconservancy.org - Look for info on our Traditional Artisans Show 9/11-12

RECEIVED
IRRC
2010 AUG - 3 P 3:53

----- Original Message -----

From: landjspiegel@aol.com
To: RegComments@state.pa.us ; margueritequinn@pahousenews.com
Cc: dan@agafarms.com ; dixie14@verizon.net ; evemarschark@verizon.net ; WBattist@its.jnj.com ; left34@verizon.net ; bdrewblc@comcast.net ; abbrooms1@verizon.net ; creisinger@cephalon.com
Sent: Wednesday, July 28, 2010 3:16 PM
Subject: Proposed Regulations on Marcellus Shale Drilling

The Bedminster Regional Land Conservancy (Bucks County) would like to comment on the proposed regulatory changes that would strengthen safety and environmental restrictions on drilling for natural gas in the Marcellus shale areas in the state. The Conservancy board unanimously voted to support these safety and environmental proposals.

John Spiegel, secretary
Bedminster Regional Land Conservancy