Dear IRRC,

As a 6th grader, I find it disappointing to find out that Pennsylvania is the only state in the region not participating in the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative. I am only 11 years old but I am aware of the situation we are in right now. I fully believe that RGGI makes sense. I don't want to grow up and know the air I am breathing is polluted, and we could've done something about it. Companies polluting our planet and spreading carbon emissions should give back to environmental organizations trying to help it.

I fully support Pennsylvania to join RGGI.

Sincerely,

Saira Sethi - 9 Forwood Dr - Concord Township- Delaware County
