Dear General Assembly,

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on cyber charter school. I respect that tuition is calculated from a district's budget; however, I do not understand why one public school will pay one tuition rate for special education students and one for regular education students while another public school will pay a different tuition rate for the two students to the same cyber charter school. This makes no sense to me. There should be a State tuition rate for cyber charter schools which is lower than the public tuition rates because of less overhead costs.
